Dear ma
arrived safe
we all up last
she just after 12 p.m.
had to wait an hour at Carlos where I had a bite. Glad to say I am better to-day but can't say much for the salt water cure which I have just tried. I find my cold has not proved infectious to any of you. Love to all & kisses of Luck.
yours etc

Pont Hourat. The picture shows one of the similar bridges in the Valley of Ossau. Surrounded by lofty mountains, the roads and paths often hang like shelves on the edge of sheer precipices, and bridges are often the only means of crossing the torrents which fill the valleys.
